Hungarian Ultimatum To Czechs

CREATING COMMON FRONTIER

London, Oct. 9.
The Hungarian and Polish Governments have, according to the Sunday morning papers here, addressed an ultimatum couched in peremptory language to Czechoslovakia regarding the creating of a common frontier between Poland and Hungary. The papers affirm that Mussolini has approved of the Note which is expected to be re-mitted to the Prague Government either on Sunday or Monday.—Transocean.

AUTONOMIST REGIME

Prague, Oct. 9.
A conference of parliamentary representatives of Sub-Carpathian Russia, otherwise known as Ruthenia, decided yesterday to establish an autonomist regime within the Czechoslovak state similar to that instituted in Slovakia.
Pending the institution of the new autonomous government, five Ruthenian delegates will be entrusted with the administration of the territory.
Agitation in Hungary and Poland in favour of Ruthenia's incorporation into Hungary in order to give Poland and Hungary a common frontier is therefore circumvented.—Reuter.

MERCURY GAINS LONG DISTANCE SEAPLANE RECORD

High Average Speed
Maintained

STRONG HEAD WINDS

London, October 9.
ALTHOUGH THE MERCURY SEAPLANE, upper component of the Mayo composite aircraft, failed to beat the non-stop long distance flight record she gained the world's long distance record for seaplanes by a substantial margin of 731 miles.

As the result of severe head winds which caused a drain on the fuel reserves the Mercury had to alight at the mouth of the Orange River at 7.25 a.m. G.M.T. having then flown 6,445 miles.

The previous seaplane record of the Mercury was to have alighted 5,214 miles was set up by the German Dornier catapault aircraft from Start Bay to Brazil.

The Mercury's average speed was 144 m.p.h. throughout the flight. This is easily the highest speed ever maintained on a long distance flight. The average cruising speed of the Russian record from Moscow to San Jacinto was just over 100 m.p.h. The Mercury's flight to the Orange River began from Dundee at 1.19 p.m. on Thursday and thus took approximately 42 hours. She was over Euston at 3.39 on Thursday and her time from London was, therefore, 39 hours 42 minutes.—British Wireless.

Piloted by Captain D. C. T. Bennett and his co-pilot, A. J. Coster, the Mercury was to have alighted at Capetown, a hop of 7,000 miles, which would have easily exceeded the Soviet record, says Reuter.

Only strong head winds prevented the gallant airmen from accomplishing their objective.

Major E. Mayo, designer of the machine, which was designed for trans-Atlantic flights, said to Reuter: "It was a magnificent accomplishment by the machine and members of the crew. 'Mercury' could have got to Capetown if the wind had been negotiable. We must not be discouraged about it, because the long distance seaplane record has been beaten by about 800 miles. 'Everything else functioned perfectly.'"

350,000 Reported During Four Months

MANY AFFECTED BY YANGTZE EPIDEMICS

Hankow, October 9.
JAPANESE CASUALTIES SUSTAINED in the Sino-Japanese hostilities during the past four months have reached the staggering figure of 350,000 according to a statement issued yesterday by General Chen Cheng, Director of the Political Board of the National Military Council, and Chairman of the Hupeh Provincial Government.

This figure, according to General Chen, includes 96,000 Japanese killed in action and 250,000 wounded and affected by epidemic diseases on the Yangtze front only. It does not include casualties as a result of operations in North China and on the eastern front during the period under review.

Whilst the casualty ratio between China and Japan during the hostilities in Shanghai was 3 to 1, the present ratio is 1 to 1, General Chen revealed.

The enormous Japanese casualties are attributed by General Chen to operations in the hilly terrain which rendered Japanese mechanised units ineffective. On many occasions, he said, the Japanese were compelled to engage with the Chinese in hand-to-hand combat which caused great casualties on their part.

With reference to Japan's fighting forces in China during the period under review, General Chen estimates that over 1,000,000 have been thrown into the field. On the Yangtze River front alone there are about 22 divisions, totalling 600,000 men, whilst the Japanese forces on the eastern front, in North China, and in Manchuria engaging Chinese guerrillas total about 400,000 men.

In conclusion, General Chen declares that in inflicting heavy losses on Japan in the present period, China has attained the aim of a war of attrition as she did in the first two periods of the hostilities when about 400,000 casualties were suffered by the Japanese.—Central News.

ATTACKED BY GUERRILLAS

Shanghai, Oct. 9.
One Jewish Russian and 30 Chinese were killed on the Shanghai-Wusui highway on Wednesday night when five trucks were ambushed by guerrillas with machine-guns, rifles and hand-grenades, according to a surviving Russian arriving here on foot yesterday.

The body of Vladimir Kupitzky, 32, will be brought back by train and buried to-day. He was the chauffeur in the leading truck in which 19 Chinese passengers were killed. The other foreign, Boris Gershevich jumped out into a ricefield.—Reuter.

BRITISH SOVEREIGNS TO VISIT CANADA

Three Weeks' Stay Early Summer Next Year

London, October 9.
It was announced from Balmoral Castle last night that the King and Queen have graciously consented to accept the invitation of the Prime Minister of Canada to visit Canada next year.

Their Majesties hope to arrive in the Dominion in early summer and spend about three weeks in the country. Canada has not previously been visited by either the King or Queen.

This will be the King's first visit to any part of his Empire outside of the United Kingdom since his accession.

It is understood that plans for the visit were originally discussed by Lord Tweedsmuir, Governor-General of Canada, at several talks with the King at Buckingham Palace.

No details of the trip are yet available, but it is expected that

Their Majesties will go to Canada in a specially chartered liner.

Added significance is given to the visit by the fact that the King is King of Canada as well as King of England under the terms of the Statute of Westminster.

Whether The Majesties will cross the border into the United States is not known. No reigning British Sovereign has yet set foot on the New World.—Reuter.

CHARGE AGAINST BLUECHER

London, Oct. 9.
A Helsinki message to "The Observer" states that the local press reports that the charge on which Marshal Vassily Bluecher was arrested at Sverdlovsk was that of inciting Ukrainian troops to mutiny. The message adds that in the last ten days 43 generals of the Soviet Far Eastern Army, of which Marshal Bluecher was commander-in-chief, and the Marshal's entire staff was arrested, and six political commissars attached to the Eastern forces executed.—Reuter.

FUNDS FOR CZECH REFUGEES

London, Oct. 9.
Response to the Lord Mayor's appeal for funds for Czech refugees is so great that the staff at Mansion House has been obliged to cope with the work of receiving subscriptions.
The Lord Mayor of London is flying to-morrow to Prague to set up, under the guidance of the British Minister, the organisation necessary to make use of the fund for relief of refugees.—Reuter.

FIRST DAY RESULTS OF OCTOBER RACES

JOCKEY HONOURS GO TO RAYMOND AND WEI

SILKYLIGHT WINS MAIN EVENT

The first day of the October ("Double Tenth") Race Meeting was featured by some very keen racing, almost every event being closely contested. The biggest disappointment of the day came in the third race, the October Handicap, when Mr. Eu Tong-sen decided to withhold Desert Chief as a result of which only three starters accepted for the race which was won by Silkylight with Mr. B.A. Proulx on the saddle.

Mr. A.W. Raymond and Mr. P.Y.T. Wei, with two wins each to their credit, headed the list of successful jockeys but it was left to Mr. P. L. Jui, on A Great Time, to return the best dividend of the day—$121.20 for a modest $5 place bet!

Brutus and Rose Jane were the winning combination for the Daily Double which paid $118.80. Messrs P.P. Botelho and S.W. Fan made welcome reappearances to the saddle, the former riding his own pony, Soldier of China to third place in the penultimate race of the day.

THE FIRST RACE

The first race of the day attracted ten starters. Kings Lead (Mr. Needa) set the pace and maintained this up to the Half-Mile Post when Tampa Bay (Mr. P. Y. Wei) went to the lead followed by Just In Time (Mr. J. L. Jui) and Scenic View (Mr. H. C. Pih).

The finish was very close, the three ponies being within a length of each other.

JORDAN HANDICAP

Piet Hein (Mr. L. H. Wade) took the lead and maintained this position till rounding the Village Bend, when Estover (Mr. A. W. Raymond) forged ahead and led to the finish with Coronation Day (Mr. P. Y. T. Wei) and Valorous (Mr. V. V. Needa) second and third respectively.

OCTOBER HANDICAP

The big race of the day, The October Handicap, only three starters, Desert Chief being held over till Monday.

King's Warden (Mr. V. V. Needa) set the pace and ran with a fine stride so much so that it looked a winner by Silkylight (Mr. B. A. Proulx) was not to be denied and finished strongly to win by four lengths. Bear Claw was third.

NATHAN HANDICAP

Mr. Victor Needa rode a grand race on Expression Time to win the first section of the Nathan Handicap with Wild Life (Mr. A. J. A. Hearne) second and Red Feather (Mr. P. Y. T. Wei) third.

Honeycomb Eve (Mr. K. I. Ip) tried to make a runaway race of it but could not last the distance and soon faded out of the picture.

KATOOMBA HANDICAP

Mr. H. C. Pih won his first race of the day when he piloted Brutus first past the Post in the Katoomba Handicap, a length-and-a-half in front of A Great Time will Roofly third.

It was a very close race, the field being bunched together for the most part.

JORDAN HANDICAP

Flybynight took the lead and kept the lead till nearing the Home stretch when he was overtaken by The Leopard (Mr. P. Y. Wei), and Diogenes (Mr. S. W. Tang) and Five Rulers (Mr. V. V. Needa). These positions were maintained to the finish.

AUSTIN HANDICAP

Laughing Buddha (Mr. F. F. Li) took the lead but was overtaken by Soldier of China (Mr. P. P. Botelho) and Amberley (Mr. B. L. Tao) when nearing the Village Bend. Rose Jane (Mr. C. Encarnacao) who was in fourth position, shot forward to win by three lengths, followed by Amberley and Soldier of China.

NATHAN HANDICAP

As the ponies were lining up for the start, National Pride (Mr. S. L. Yuen) gave trouble and bolted for some distance, but settled down and was hidden back to the starting-line. Jobber (Mr. A. W. Raymond) took the lead and set a fast pace, followed by Rob Roy and Expansion Time.

These positions were maintained up to the finish.

NEWS ABOUT THE SERVICES

ROYAL NAVY DEVONPORT DOCKYARD COMMAND

Vice-Admiral A. L. Snagge, C.B., has relinquished the post of Admiral-Superintendent at Devonport Dockyard. He was appointed on March 2, 1935, and reappointed on his retirement on January 2, 1936. His successor is Rear-Admiral A. N. Dowling, C.B., who has been employed at the Admiralty since last February.

Work at Devonport Dockyard has materially increased during Vice-Admiral Snagge's tenure.

Three Cruisers, the Birmingham, Gloucester, and Trinidad, have been laid down, and the Birmingham has been completed and the Gloucester launched. Eight mine-sweepers and escort vessels have also been laid down and six of them completed.

But apart from new construction, the yard has been largely employed on repair work, the principal jobs including the modernizing of the battleships Valiant and Malaya and the aircraft-carrier Argus. Vice-Admiral Snagge has been 46 years in the Navy, having entered the Britannia as a cadet in July, 1892.

LAUNCH OF THE SEAL

The submarine Seal was launched at Chatham Dockyard on Sept. 27 Miss Danby, sister of Vice-Admiral Clinton Danby, C.B., Admiral-Superintendent, performing the naming ceremony. The launch will be private, the public not being admitted to the yard.

Authorized in 1936, and laid down in December of that year, the Seal is the last of the six minelaying submarines of the Porpoise class, of about 1,520 tons (2,140 tons submerged), and should be ready for service in the spring of 1939.

CRUISER FOR AUSTRALIA

The cruiser Apollo, which is to be transferred to the Australian Navy, will recommission on October 11 at Devonport as the Hobart, and not on October 6 as at first arranged.

COMMANDER FOR GREECE

Commander C. D. Howard-Johnston has been lent for duty under the Greek Government.

THE NEW MOTOR MINE-SWEEPERS

More of the new fast motor torpedo-boats are approaching completion, and the Admiralty are calling for volunteers for service in them.

Actually, of course, all men in the Navy are liable to be drafted to them, but the Admiralty prefer to let men have their own choice in cases where there is hardship involved.

Life in these new craft is nothing like as hard as it was in the early steam-driven torpedo-boats of forty years ago, but it is not one of the easy jobs, and the men are allowed "hard lying money" as a compensation.

Men are also wanted for the new motor mine-sweepers, about which little has so far been made public.

The performances of the first experimental boats are understood to have been satisfactory, and others have been ordered under this year's programme.

In both these classes of small craft with their limited crews, it is essential to have first-class men, and in selecting the volunteers consideration will be given not only to the technical qualifications but also to alertness, self-reliance, and enthusiasm.

The following appointments are made by the Admiralty:—

PLEBISCITES NOT POPULAR

London, Oct. 9.
Tendencies aiming at dispensing altogether with the holding of plebiscites in Czechoslovakia are becoming more pronounced, according to a statement made by an authoritative source.
Should the decision to this effect be ultimately reached it is obvious that the British Legion would not need to leave for Czechoslovakia.—Transocean.

CHRISTMAS PROMISE TO BE RENEWED?

Japanese Again Talk About Landing!

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT)

Canton, October 9.
Persistent reports from Shanghai, London and even Hankow stated that Japanese forces will soon invade South China and that over 30,000 soldiers have arrived in Formosa preparatory to the attack.
Governor Wu Te-chen and military officials here are ready for any emergency, as threats of attack have been current since last Christmas when General Li Fu-shan was sought by the Japanese to set up a puppet regime and refused to have anything to do with it.

The small islands off the coast of Waiyang in East Kwangtung are occupied by Japanese bluejackets, whose number is said to have increased slightly. The number of destroyers has also increased, but confirmation is not available.
It is learned, however, that the 30,000 troops at Formosa are new recruits to replace the seasoned island soldiers who have been sent to the Yangtze front.

TO UPSET ROUTINE
One object of these rumours is to upset normal life here, as conditions are rapidly returning to normal. Another motive is to harass the authorities, so that the Japanese may achieve political objectives side by side with the threat of military force.
The populace here is quite calm despite these rumours. More people are now returning here from Hongkong. This is due to their confidence in the Government.
Governor Wu Te-chen has given instructions to all senior officers of the Peace Preservation Corps, of which he is the commander-in-chief, in the event of the landing of Japanese forces.
All divisional commanders who came back here for new orders have again left for their garrison posts.

CONCERT BY SITSON MA

Under the auspices of the Kwangtung and Hongkong Christian Students Unions, a concert to raise funds for war relief will be given by Mr. Sitson Ma, the well-known Chinese violinist, in the Great Hall of the University on November 12 at 9 p.m.

The programme will include Brahms' Sonata in A Major, Beethoven's Concerto in D Major and five of Mr. Ma's own compositions.

ALL THAT CONCERNS ME

What I must do, is all that concerns me, not what the people think. This rule, equally arduous in actual and in intellectual life, may serve for the whole distinction between greatness and meanness. It is the harder because you will always find those who think they know what is your duty better than you know it. It is easy in the world to live after the world's opinion; it is easy in solitude to live after our own; but the great man is he who in the midst of the crowd keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude.

Mr. Anselm Chuh, assistant manager of the head office of the Bank of China, returned to Hongkong from Canton during the week-end.

Mr. W. D. Pawley, president of the Inter-Continent Corporation, has returned to Hongkong from the United States, whither he went on business. Mr. Pawley travelled by Clipper and is looking exceptionally well.

His Excellency the Governor has been pleased under instructions from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, to appoint Mr. Maxwell Norman Oxford to be an Assistant Superintendent of Aerodrome in Hongkong.

NEW DIVORCE PROBLEMS

Rulings Needed

The Matrimonial Causes Act, 1937, which has already been the subject of much judicial discussion, will have to be further considered when the Law Courts reopen October 12 after the Long Vacation.

Although many problems raised by the Act, which came into force on January 1, have been solved by the Judges of the Divorce Division, rulings on several important points are sought for the future guidance of lawyers and litigants.

One matter to come up for early consideration concerns the circumstances in which the respondent to a divorce suit is entitled to have a decree nisi made absolute.

Before the new Act became operative, the respondent in law the "guilty party" had no right to apply for a decree nisi to be made absolute.

CHECK TO REMARRIAGE
Thus a woman petitioner might prevent her husband from remarrying by never applying for the decree absolute, or might delay the application for mercenary motives.

In the same way, a man could stop his wife from marrying a co-respondent and regularising her position.

Besides introducing new grounds for divorce and other reforms, the Act aimed at remedying this situation, and now a respondent is entitled to apply for a decree nisi to be made absolute at the end of the statutory six months if the petitioner fails to do so.

Questions have arisen, however, concerning the circumstances in which the Court should accede to such a request by a respondent if the petitioner opposes it. This is one of the matters upon which judicial guidance is needed.

Another point is whether a respondent can in special circumstances make a successful application for a final decree before the expiration of the statutory period.

ROUND ABOUT

One evening, at the Kowloon wharves, loading and unloading of several ships was in progress. Stevedores and coolies sweated and shouted under huge, bright searchlights.

Wharf and ship cranes picked and dumped cargo here and there. Small flat freight cars, pushed by the coolies, banged and clattered up and down the piers.

White-coated cargo checkers sitting at the end of wharves were busy with figures. Indian policemen with their roving eyes stood watching. Pedestrian traffic was nil, but for two seamen, a bit unsteady making their way along one of the piers. Designing figure of eights on their way through the mass of Chinese labourers, the two sailors arrived at one of the idle cranes.

Two and four leaps like monkeys, and they were ensconced in the crane house. Levers were pulled and out shot the crane, its giant teeth snapping open and shut.

A chorus of excited comment rose from the working coolies, who scattered here and there. Dock policemen ran to the wharfinger's office.

And still with glee and abandon the sailors continued to play with their new toy. Up, down and around went the crane.

Coolies stared from a safe distance. All work stood still, but not for long. "John Law" soon appeared upon the scene and, with little to do, escorted the seamen to a waiting motor, and then to the station, while loading and unloading resumed.

HONGKONG, OCTOBER 10, 1938.

DOUBLE-TENTH

HONGKONG TO-DAY EXTENDS its heartfelt congratulations on the occasion of the 20th anniversary of the foundation of the Republic of China. The "Hongkong Daily Press" joins in offering felicitations to its Chinese friends and readers.

Throughout these years of its existence, the Republic of China has withstood all attempts, both internal and external, to shatter its foundations and to bring about its downfall. The first President, Yuan Shih-kai, betrayed the Republic and tried to have himself crowned Emperor, following the abdication of the Manchu, Boy Emperor but he failed ignominiously. Chang Hsun, one of the leading militarists, never gave up the idea of the restoration of the Manchus although he professed to be a true servant of the Republic, tried without success to restore Hsuan Tung to the throne but he, too, failed. Then came the militarists and the scheming politicians, such as the Chihli Party, the Anfu Party and the Mukden clique, who tried unsuccessfully to seize power for themselves and to administer the country under the guise of a Republic, whereas in fact their regimes were nothing but tyrannical attempts at dictatorships.

All along, the Japanese tried their utmost to harass the Chinese Government and to secure "economic co-operation" by the most despicable of methods, and when their attempts failed, they forced China at the point of the bayonet to accept the humiliating Twenty-One Demands. After that came the drive against Mukden and the war around Shanghai in which the Nineteenth Route Army so distinguished itself. The invasion continued until the Japanese, believing the time was ripe for the extermination of the Chinese Army and the seizure of north China, began the fighting at Lukochiao on July 17, 1937, which has lasted until the present day, more than fifteen months after firing the first shot.

THESE ATTACKS AGAINST THE REPUBLIC of China were, as is well-known, unsuccessful, and the Republic of China to-day stands in a position stronger more united and more glorious than ever before.

Not only has she fought in defence of her undisputed sovereign rights and her honour, but China, drenched in the blood of thousands of her innocent, inoffensive, STANDS and defenceless citizens, ALONE is standing alone in fighting a battle for humanity, justice and international peace against an aggressor nation which has violated every principle of international and human law and decency of conduct.

China, unaided and inferior to Japan so far as military equipment goes but superior to her enemy in civilization, morality and morale, is actually performing a service in the cause of humanity and democracy on behalf of every nation and every people which regard as sacred those principles of liberalism which go to the making of free constitutions.

AS THE CHINESE PEOPLE to-day celebrate their national holiday, the second since the outbreak of the present hostilities, they cannot fail to think of the young men who have paid the supreme sacrifice, and the thousands upon thousands who have been wounded, in the defence of their beloved country whose honour and prestige they have been trying so successfully to uphold. They cannot fail to remember those innocent men, women and children who have been so barbarously slaughtered when Japanese planes, indiscriminately bombed and machine-gunned China's open cities, towns and villages. They cannot fail to remember the thousands of women humiliated by the invading hordes who are out on the one

LEST WE hand, to win China's FORGET friendship and "peaceful economic co-operation" at the point of the gun and, on the other, to "beat China to her knees." Nor can they forget

WHAT PEACE MEANS.

Sir—As a fine example of what peace means to the great Powers, I cite the following example:—In Portugal's once potent empire, now shrunk to sixth largest in the world, encouraged and backed by German funds, Angola's small clannish German group, which constitutes, next to the Portuguese, the largest white population, the Nazis have tried to build up a strong separatist movement among the natives. Britons have talked of satisfying Germany's hunger for colonies by assigning Angola to the Nazis. "The British," as one British paper proclaimed, "are almost prepared to endure almost unlimited sacrifices of Portuguese territory in their anxiety to secure a more equitable and peaceful share of the world's goods." Pretty sentiments these are, coming from the British. And yet, not a word or line about Britain returning to Germany what she collected from them as her lion's share of the Great War prize.

Returning to the minority problem and Hitler's deep concern for the welfare of all Germans outside the Reich, let him look to the South Tyrol whose 230,000 Germans have been hounded by Mussolini every day for the last sixteen years, deprived of their land, moved into malarial marshes, and shipped to death or penance in Ethiopia. The Germans thus driven out of Italy have been replaced by Italian farmers and troops, in an uncomfortable proximity of his chief ally, Der Fuehrer Hitler.

JAY MARTIN

NOBEL PEACE PRIZE

Sir—Suggestion has been made that the Nobel Peace Prize should be given to Mr. N. Chamberlain. Suggestion also has been made that the prize should be awarded to Dr. E. Benes, President of Czechoslovakia. In my opinion, the Nobel Peace Prize should be divided among Mr. Chamberlain, President Benes, M. Daladier, Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini. You cannot fight alone. In the same way, you cannot make "world peace" alone. Mr. Chamberlain, M. Daladier, Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini, signed the Four-Power Pact, and Dr. E. Benes accepted the "peace" settlement, so they are all equal worthy candidates for the Nobel Peace Prize.

PEACE.

ONE SURE WAY TO PEACE

HONGKONG, OCTOBER 9th, 1938.

ALL THIS useless slaughter in China can be stopped—if only the Powers will take action.

It is not necessary for all the Powers to act in concert. It is sufficient if only Great Britain, the United States and France move to take joint action through the application of economic sanctions against Japan.

Since the whole world is agreed that Japan is the aggressor in the present undeclared war on China, there can be no objection to any course of action which would make it impossible for Tokyo to continue her acts of aggression. It is useless to appeal to Japan, in the interests of peace, to stop, just as it is useless to appeal to an armed robber to desist in the interests of social welfare.

It might be calamity for the whole world if armed forces from all the Powers were despatched to punish the aggressor, but a calamity is likely to befall the world unless something effective is done immediately. This must be something which is not only effective, but it must not disturb the peace of the world. Economic sanctions are the answer.

In normal times the application of economic sanctions against a country might lead to war because of the resentment of that country against such action, but the application of sanctions against Japan at the present time is the surest way to restore peace. China's stubborn resistance has kept the Japanese military machine so fully occupied that it has neither the inclination nor the capacity to take care of any other nation which declares sanctions against her. China has decided to do all the fighting herself in any case, but suffering will be lessened and the war will be shorter, in duration, if the Powers take the peaceful measure suggested.

If America will stop buying Japanese raw silk and stop selling war supplies to Tokyo, and if the British Empire stops buying Japanese manufactured goods, Japan will be greatly handicapped in carrying on the war and, if these two sister nations, with the co-operation of France, should cease all financial dealings with the offending nation, peace will quickly be restored in the Orient.

While China, at great sacrifices, is engaged in the herculean task of putting out the conflagration which Japan started, is it asking too much of some of the Powers to cease supplying fuel for Japan to heap on the fire? Is not the restoration of peace, and consequently of legitimate international trade, more profitable in the long run than the continuance of this war and the reaping of blood-stained riches from the sale of munitions?

The strength and prestige and the trade and rights of Britons, Americans and French in the Far East have been so badly shaken that it is necessary for them to join in imposing sanctions against Japan to prevent her marauding hordes from overrunning the civilized world.

Just apply sanctions, and China can be depended upon to do her part, but, sanctions or no sanctions, China is determined to fight to the bitter end.

the millions who have been thrown homeless and have lost their entire worldly belongings.

THOSE WHO HAVE PAID THE SUPREME SACRIFICE for China have gone but they have not been forgotten; their memories will for ever remain fresh in the minds of their fellow countrymen.

The "love bug" has certainly been taking big bites out of a great many people these days. Many steamship passengers have been saying "I do" to the music of wedding bells. It has been "here comes the bride" and "there goes the bride."

S.S. Yasukuni Maru

WHEN THE N.Y.K. steamer from Japan put into harbour on Saturday midnight there was on board Miss G. Ruppert, arriving from Detroit, Michigan, the lady who was married to Mr. L. McTavish, connected with the Stanley Prison, yesterday.

We wish you the very best possible for the two of you! Empress of Canada.

THURSDAY LAST, 230 p.m., it was very hot and sticky and No. 1 pier was lined with friends, baggage boys, coolies all waiting for the Police Department to get through with passport examination.

Lining the rail were many Colony residents back from vacation. The lovely Mrs. J. H. Taggart, in a very new frock, arrived back from Canada and the States.

Sir Henry and Lady Pollock and the Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Potter finished off their vacations and are back ready for work.

Then we spied Mr. and Mrs. M. Axelrod, the representative of the Crown Life Insurance Company, and practically next to them Sir Vandevel Grayburn, Chief Manager of the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation who returned from England via North America after six months' leave. And hello to the nice Mr. J. H. Middlecoat who takes care of the affairs of Canadian National Railroad. The quiet, pleasant Mr. George Costello, Canadian Pacific's General passenger representative, and Mrs. Costello, were up there at the rail, too.

His Excellency Signor Guilian Cora, Italian Ambassador to China, arrived from Shanghai and transferred to the m.v. Bossevain en route home.

This vessel was a sailing "Who's Who."

Departure Friday

NINE A.M. Friday all aboard and away for Manila sailed the Empress of Canada. Rain pouring down and very few handwavers on the scene. Mr. and Mrs. Harold

Another Clipper passenger who left Alameda, visited Guam and Manila on a 30-day voyage was Mr. W. Hunt, of Hunt and Company. There were quite a few excited damsels who were glad to see this gentleman's return, and what a welcome he received! Departure s.s. Potsdam

FRIDAY, 3.10 P.M., the Potsdam left for Shanghai and Japan.

Homebound bound after two months of work in the Colony went Mr. W. Y. Yik, of Melchers Company. He likes us down here but will be glad to get back to his desk in the Shanghai office. Best of luck!

Plenty of friends were down to toast the trip to Shanghai for Mr. C. I. Barr, of Canadian National Railroads, who will be up in the North on a business call.

M.V. Bossevain

THIS MODERN vessel, after her visit to the docks here, sailed for southern ports and South Africa at 5.10 p.m. on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Frazier, of Honolulu, have been in the Colony on their "once every three years" visit. Mr. Frazier is well-known for his many photographs taken about the world and several much publicised ones of Hongkong. Accompanying these charming people is Mr. G. P. Denison, the general manager of the Oahu Railroad, taking a vacation. Next May will find them all back in Hawaii with a year of interesting events and places visited.

Mr. E. W. Lang left for his yearly trip of investigation in the South for the Canadian Pacific. We will be looking for you at Christmas time. Best of luck!

To Manila, on a short business trip, departed Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Roa Raaga on this Dutch vessel and they, too, will return before the holiday season commences.

Romance sailed on the m.v. Bossevain when Miss P. Homer, of the Dairy Farm Company, and Mr. K. Barker, the Falco Company's world travelling representative, departed. These two quiet and nice people plan to be married on the steamer or in Singapore. They will return from the south for a short call, then on to the United States, and England.

Our best wishes and congratulations to those who are on a holiday and relaxation, with a bit of business.

Hello & Goodbye

—BY A.W. HYER—

Sweet, of the China National Aviation Corporation, with their three-year-old son Harold, Jr., one-year-old Russell E. and two-year-old Diane, cared for by the reliable amah, left for a vacation in Manila. This charming family had planned on a Clipper trip to the southern city, however, they hope to make their return via the air. (Who has the Clipper?)

Visiting the Philippines for the next month and forgetting about stocks and bonds is Miss Constance Cameron, of Ellis and Edgar, whom we awake the rainy morning. We trust you will find an ideal vacation in the south. S.S. Potsdam

DAILY SLIDING down the bay with the band playing and passengers waving came the s.s. Potsdam on Thursday at 11.30 a.m. on her 13th voyage outward from Germany.

There were passengers galore and the largest batch were seven nice people headed for the Norwegian Lutheran Mission in Lachow, Hupeh, China.

A very honourable passenger returning from Germany was the Chinese Ambassador to that country, Dr. Tien Feng-cheng. A rest and visit with relatives is in store for this gentleman.

Mr. John H. Roberts, the very nice executive of the British American Tobacco Company returned from a holiday in England. He will be joined by Mrs. Roberts before the Christmas season. Glad to see you back, and well.

Hello! my but you took a long trip! This to the charming Mr. William Pawley, of the Inter-Continent Company. A business trip to the United States going via Clipper claimed this gentleman's time since the early part of August. But the coming home via Clipper and boat just about had him "down," so to speak.

It must have been a nice 30-day trip you are looking so well. Glad to see you back!

IDENTIFICATION CARD MUST BE PRODUCED

China Light Issue Warning

At the request of Mr. G. A. White, of the China Light and Power Company Limited, Mr. K. M. A. Barnett, at the Kowloon Court on Saturday morning issued a warning to the public to the effect that any man entering a house on the pretence that he was sent there by the China Light and Power Company should be able to produce an identification card bearing his photograph, the seal of the Company, and the signature of a responsible officer of the Company.

Several complaints respecting such cases of unknown men entering a house on the pretence of having been sent there to inspect or repair the metre have reached the notice of the Company.

At the Kowloon Court, Tsui Sing, 45, was fined $100, in default two months with hard labour, on conviction of a charge of entering No. 1 Playing Field Road, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Cheung, on false pretences.

At 3 p.m. on Thursday, Tsui was admitted into the house when he claimed he had been sent there to repair the metre. On being asked to produce an identification card, on failing to do so, he said that employees of the Company did not require one.

While Mr. Cheung detained Tsui, Mrs. Cheung telephoned the Company. A representative was sent down who verified the fact that Tsui was not an employee.

TYPHOON DRIVES VESSELS ON ROCKS

Though it did not touch Hongkong, Friday's typhoon caused two coastal vessels, the Yolande Bertin (French) and the Deslock (British) to be piled up on Hainan Island.

Neither of the ships, it is understood, are in any danger, but according to reports both are firmly lodged.

Messrs. Wallen and Company, local agents for the French vessel, state that she was proceeding in ballast to Port Parsavel, near Hainan.

The Deslock was piled up near Hainan. She was also in ballast, and was proceeding to Hongkong from Hongkong.

Bond, Operations Manager, Mr. and Mrs. P. Y. Wong, with their daughter, were headed for Chungking. The flight was mainly an experimental trip and in the near future a new schedule will be prepared for this Company.

The Double Tenth-1938 — AND — Victory For China

(By Percy Chen)

SEVEN YEARS AGO JAPANESE SOLDIERS disguised in Chinese uniforms tore up the railway track outside the city of Mukden—and the Japanese invasion of China began. In that year the Double Tenth National Anniversary was observed under circumstances that caused many to realise that the moment of China's trial had come. This realisation unfortunately was not shared by the vast majority of Chinese, some of whom were in the highest ranks of the Government and the principal Parties.

The scope of the Japanese invasion increased year by year to embrace all the three Eastern Provinces, Jehol, Chahar, and part of Hopei. Unpreparedness, and inefficiency in making preparations for resistance, were some of the reasons why it was not until 1938 that a decisive blow was struck back by tormented China.

In 1938 the Double Tenth Anniversary witnessed the first defeat inflicted on Japan, when her mercenaries failed to achieve their objective of capturing Suiyuan.

When the Japanese Government decided to make another assault upon China, they planned to complete the "China Incident" with a punitive expedition of 15 divisions, at a cost of 300,000. But China was now united. The Government was able to lead the military forces of the country to resistance, and in place of a punitive expedition Japan found herself involved in a big war during which she has been forced to put more than a million and a half men on the mainland in China.

VICTORY ATTAINABLE. In observing the Double Tenth Anniversary to-day, China is able to look back upon achievements which give us confidence that victory is attainable and will be attained. After 15 months of warfare in which the Chinese soldiers have time and again proved their superiority over the invader, we find that the leaders of the Japanese Government have realised that the conquest of China is an undertaking to which there might be no end.

Prince Konoye recently stated, "We do not think that the capture of the Wuhan cities will end the hostilities." And in this we concur! The policy of the United Front, adopted by the Central Government has enabled China to face the Japanese invaders with well armed and well trained regular divisions of the youth of China from all strata. It has also enabled her to organize hundreds of thousands of guerrillas in the rear of the invaders.

According to a neutral observer, Captain Evans Carlson, of the U.S. Marines, there are at least 600,000 guerrillas in the Japanese occupied areas of North China. These guerrillas are not isolated bands of marauders. They comprise units unified under a central command such as the New Fourth Route Army, operating in the Lower Yangtze region. And for these units training schools for officers have been organized. Such schools are reported to be at Wu-tai, Shansi at Nantung in Kiangsu.

CO-OPERATION. The Japanese War Minister, General Itagaki, has stated that "Japan will continue hostilities for 10 years or more so long as anti-Japanese and anti-Manchukuo influences and pro-Communist elements remain." The policy of the United Front has resulted in co-operation between the members of the two leading Parties in China, the Kuomintang and the Communist Parties.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek has said, "It is futile to try to separate the Chinese Communists from the rest of China." (People's Tribune, September, 1938). So that assuming the ability of Japan to continue until the power of the Japanese militarists has been broken either in China by the force of our resistance, or by the force of the Japanese people aimed against their oppressors.

As the strength of the Japanese waned under the strain of conducting a prolonged war against a determined and united China, it is not surprising to find manoeuvres being undertaken which might tend to reduce the power of China's resistance.

"PEACE TERMS" In the anxious days of July, when the decisions for the complete democratic defence of Wuhan had not yet been taken, efforts were made by Japanese agents to propagandise "peace terms" which Japan was willing to offer. The Japanese were supposed to include Japanese assurances that they had no territorial ambitions in North China, that China should join the anti-Comintern Pact, and that Japanese troops would withdraw from China. The worth of these "peace terms" was indicated when Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek refused to consider "Peace" so long as a Japanese soldier remained on Chinese soil.

These and other "peace offers" serve the more clearly to indicate the desperate straits in which the Japanese are finding themselves. Having failed to shake the unity that binds all sections of the Chinese people together the Japanese have had to set themselves the unenviable task of defeating the Chinese people in the field.

For the Japanese the capture of Wuhan will turn out to be an empty victory. Failure to capture Wuhan would be the beginning of the end of the Japanese adventure in China, notwithstanding what General Itagaki thinks to the contrary.

TEMPO DECREASED. The Double Tenth Anniversary, marking the 7th year of the life of the Chinese Republic, finds the war of National Salvation still in the stage of exhausting the invader, as he fruitlessly hurls himself deeper and deeper into the hinterland of the country, or as may be stated more technically, in a stage of strategic offence by the invader and strategic defence by China.

The tempo of the Japanese advances against Wuhan has decreased. Their losses have been great although it has not reached the proportion of three Japanese to one Chinese regular as is the case in North China. They have resorted to the use of poison gas more frequently, indicating the difficulties which they are experiencing in overcoming the resistance of the Chinese armies.

China has decided upon a policy of complete mobilisation of all the people, and in the struggle for Wuhan the price exacted from the Japanese will be proportionate to the effectiveness of this mobilisation. Competent observers have pointed out that tardiness was witnessed in the preparation of the people for the defence of Wuhan. But latterly new enthusiasm and determination to inflict defeat upon the invader has brought the preparations to a high level.

Nearer to us here in South China the preparation of the masses of the people for defence is more clearly seen. In Kwangtung the entire youth of the province is undergoing some form of military training. The peasantry are being put in a state of preparedness for defence, while organizations of essential services connected with defence are being overhauled and strengthened.

INTOLERANCE GOING. Within the internal structure of China there are still many weak units. Intolerance, inspired by personal or Party reasons, is disappearing. Corruption has not been eradicated, but has become suspect. Incompetence both in the military and civil administrative spheres is reaping its "reward." The execution of General Han Fu-chu and the dismissal of inefficient officials has succeeded in strengthening discipline within the army and the Governmental apparatus.

The organization of a State for war calls for the services of efficient personnel. The semi-feudal bureaucratic system that clustered round the Government in Nanking was dispersed when the first bombs began to fall on that city. The widening of the democratic base for successful resistance will bring to the fore able candidates for organization and administration.

And it is perhaps in this direction that, on the Double Tenth Anniversary of the 27th year of the Chinese Republic, the greatest confidence for victory lies.

The Kowloon Cricket Club held their first dance on Saturday at the Club, the music being provided by the Peninsula Hotel Band. An enjoyable time was had by all.

The cabaret dance held by the Equine Sports Club on Friday night at the Peninsula Hotel attracted more than 200 guests. The Rose Room and Roof Garden were specially decorated for the occasion.

WAH YAN STUDENTS' WAR RELIEF WORK

Splendid Results Achieved In A Year Of Effort

WEALTHY OF COLONY URGED TO CONTRIBUTE FREELY

The Wah Yan College War Relief Association yesterday celebrated the Double Tenth and the first anniversary of the formation of the Association by a meeting at the Oriental Theatre. In addition to the reading of reports of the activities of the Association, the programme included the reading of Dr. Sun Yat-sen's Will, a three-minute silence in honour of war victims, an address by Mr. Walter Hamming Chen, editor of the Far Eastern Economic and Commercial Journal, the singing of patriotic songs and a short play depicting the life of a Chinese aviator and his love for a peasant's daughter.

Mr. Ho Fook-sun, President of the Association said:—

We are met here today to observe our National Day, twenty-seven years after the establishment of our Republic. The form of this celebration is simple but solemn, for our country is at war.

The Wah Yan College War Relief Association was formed only two months after hostilities broke out. We were also fully aware of that the continuation of our war relief work required constant supply of finance to purchase materials, which in turn required regular labour to convert them into specified medical requisites.

We therefore resolved immediately to approach our members and students of Wah Yan College and Sacred Heart School for donations and regular subscriptions. Subscription books were issued to members to ask their families and friends to donate money. Large sums also came from sympathetic friends in Australia, France and Ireland. From these sources, we collected up to the end of last month the sum of over $3,000.

Members of the Association could only organize campaigns for funds, while the practical side of the relief work had to be placed under the charge of a lady with the experience and knowledge of a trained nurse. The woman of such qualification is the wife of one of our Council members, Mrs. Kwan Man-wai. With her consent, we elected her to be the chairman of the Ladies' Working Sub-Committee, the working centre of which was at Tai Wo Hong Co., Ltd. in Kaiming Building.

Some ladies left their children and household work to render service at the centre, and many girls of Sacred Heart School rushed there after they finished their classes. With their unintermitted effort for more than a year, considerable quantities of medical requisites had been produced.

ONE CENT A DAY

We deeply appreciate the great effort of Rev. Father Gallagher and his staff, Rev. Ryan and Rev. Donnelly, for they inspired the present boys to carry on their one-cent-a-day contribution. Through Rev. Ryan's "The Rock," we received donations from sympathetic friends abroad.

We are also greatly indebted to Rev. Mother Angelica and Mother Esther of Sacred Heart School. They sent their students to the Ladies' Working Centre after school hours and even during the summer vacation, the girls showed no sign of fatigue but more enthusiasm. Under the wise guidance of Mrs. Kwan Man-wai, they skillfully prepared enormous number of finished articles. Without their unintermitted service, the war relief work would have been suspended. In fact, the lady helpers work faster than we can supply them with materials.

There is still a great deal of work to be done as the present war is likely to be a long one. Indeed we should feel ashamed if we could do nothing for those who fight for our national liberty. The relief fund of the Association is at the point of exhaustion, and therefore early replenishment is awaited. We wish you will readily respond to our urgent appeal for support of every kind.

Many of you must be very eager to hear Mr. Walter Hamming Chen speak. He is formerly of the "North China Daily News" and he is very active in serving the country with his pen during the crisis. Before I call on him to speak, I wish to thank him on behalf of the Association. I also want to express our gratitude to all of you for having come to join us to celebrate the "Double-Tenth" and the first Anniversary of our War Relief Association.

MR. CHEN'S ADDRESS

Mr. Walter Hamming Chen said:—

I have been reading with considerable interest various reports concerning the activities of your association. In fact, even before coming to Hongkong, I had heard of the fine work you have undertaken for the relief of our suffering people in the homeland. You have performed most creditable work and I congratulate you.

The Chinese people of Hongkong have been doing their bit and doing it well, so far as war relief work is concerned. The people here, especially the middle class and the poorer people, and the student body, have done remarkably well and have every reason to be proud of themselves.

Although Hongkong has done its best, the best is not good enough for our brave boys at the front and the millions of victims of the ravages of this undeclared war. I think I voice the sentiments of most people when I say that many of the wealthy Chinese here have given far too little and have been inclined to bask in the sunshine, leaving the middle and poorer classes to shoulder the burden. I really believe that Hongkong's wealthy Chinese could and should give considerably more than they given.

TALK AND PLEASURE

Many of you will, I think, agree with me when I say that our educated classes have not been doing as much as they should be doing. They could do much better than they have done. Instead of taking the lead, what have many of our so-called educated Chinese done? Instead of doing their bit for their country, they have merely contented themselves with talk—empty talk, and pleasure.

Take a walk into the different hotels and restaurants and you will see these people spending money like water. Take a look at the different cabarets and you will see them, night after night, filled with young men, young men who are supposed to be educated and patriotic, forgetting entirely that the existence of China is at stake.

Take a walk into certain districts and you will see these so-called educated young men, night after night, making fools of themselves with women of ill-fame. Just look around you and you will see gambling almost everywhere with these people taking part. Perhaps they have plenty of money to waste, but surely it would be better, were they to sacrifice a few of their pleasures and give a little more of their money to their suffering fellow-citizens than they have done in the past.

FRONT-LINE CONDITIONS

Surely, if they do not wish to go to the front shouldering rifles, they can help their country and their fellow-citizens more than they are doing. If they would only forego and sacrifice a little of their pleasure, China would be far better off than she finds herself today.

I know that, if our wealthy Chinese people and our educated realized what it is like to be in the front-line trenches in north and central China, they would give more freely towards relief funds than they have done. If they had seen what I have seen—the bravery of our Chinese soldiers in the face of death, thousands making the extreme sacrifice, thousands lying wounded in the trenches, hundreds staggering back to the hospital bases to receive treatment, suffering but cheerful in the knowledge that they have done their best for their country—I know they would not hesitate to respond to the calls that are made for relief.

STUDENTS' WORK

The students, boys and girls, the boy scouts and the girl guides, have been doing wonderful work, both in the front lines and elsewhere. It was inspiring to see them working in the front-line trenches, dashing into no man's land in spite of bullets, to bring back our dead and

FOREIGNERS TO REMAIN IN HANKOW

Hankow, Oct. 9. Despite the threat to Hankow, 263 Britishers and 600 other foreigners continue their daily round of office, sports and the cinema.

The French Concession is surrounded on all sides by three rows of 12-foot high barbed wire barricades, sandbag emplacements and concrete machine-gun posts. Similar preparations are being made in the British area, while Volunteers are being enlisted to supplement the bluejackets on patrol work.

The Foreign Residents' Association has purchased food believed to be sufficient to feed 1000 persons for one month, while a whole army of workers is digging artesian wells with the object of combating a possible serious water shortage.

In spite of all these preparations, and an undercurrent of tension, there is everywhere a feeling of calm.—Reuter.

wounded. One cannot speak too highly of their magnificent and courageous conduct.

To say that it was inspiring would be putting it far too mildly. They and you young people here who are the future leaders of China well realize what the real meaning of patriotism is: you realize what it means if China should be defeated. If you did not, you would not be doing what you are doing; you would not be working so hard for the country of your forefathers.

Patriotism does not mean empty talk. It does not mean personal ambition or personal prestige. It does mean the mere contribution of a few paltry dollars by the wealthy. It does not mean that only the poor and the middle-classes should love their country. It means more; much more. It means sacrifice of everything we have—money, property, homes and families. If necessary, if China is lost, which God forbid, what use will these things be? Patriotism means that if you have money, contribute your money. If you have ability, contribute your ability. If you have strength, contribute your strength. Every little bit counts.

LONG WAR

I have often been asked how long this awful war will continue. That is no easy question to answer but my opinion is that the war will probably continue for two or three years, or more, but China is determined to resist to the very end, until she has not a single bullet left.

Then I have lately been asked, "How long can we hold Hankow?" I have only to remind you that Hankow is not lost and that it will be some time before the Japanese will be able to occupy it. My personal view is that we can hold out for another three months at least in spite of the fact that the Japanese are less than one hundred kilometres away. As the Japanese approach closer to Hankow, they will receive a big surprise. What that surprise will be I am not yet in a position to disclose.

CONFIDENCE IN VICTORY

Even though we should lose Hankow, it will not mean the end of the war for we will continue to fight on. We should not be downhearted even should the Japanese take the city. We must not lose faith. We must not let our confidence in China's final victory waver. So long as we remain united, so long as we serve our country honestly, faithfully, unselfishly and righteously, and so long as we remain united, China will never lose.

From all fronts I have constantly been receiving most satisfactory

NAZIS STORM PALACE OF CARDINAL INNITZER

Several Followers Beaten: Furniture Burned

Vienna, October 9. The Austrian Roman Catholic leader, yesterday stormed his palace, smashed the windows and threw out articles of furniture into the street and burned them.

Several of the Cardinal's followers were assaulted. Police finally dispersed the demonstrators, and 12 ambulances were necessary to take off the injured.

Cardinal Innitzer himself is reported to be slightly injured by splinters from a window.

It is stated that a sermon delivered by the Cardinal on October 7 to the Catholic Youth, dealing with the relations of Church and State, aroused the ire of the Nazis.

Legal measures against leading members of the Catholic Church in Austria is expected to follow the Nazi Party Congress which met to consider the disturbances.

An official spokesman said that Cardinal Innitzer appears to have joined those Catholic circles which oppose the Nazi regime.—Reuter.

SEVERELY PUNISHED

Berlin, Oct. 9. Herr Buerckel, Nazi leader in Austria, has ordered that leaders in the Vienna demonstrations against Cardinal Innitzer be severely punished and sent to a concentration camp for a year, according to official circles here.—Reuter.

U.S. GIRL SOFTBALL PLAYERS

Arriving by the Empress of Russia from the west coast of the United States of America are forty "Indoor Baseball" players.

The team is composed of young ladies who are well known for their exhibition in the game of Softball and who have just finished several weeks of play in Japan and are now on their way to an engagement in Manila.

Several chaperons, a doctor and coaches are included in the troupe who may stage an exhibition here in the Colony during the stop-over of their steamer.

and encouraging reports. True, in some places, we have withdrawn to more strategic positions, mostly in the mountainous regions. From these positions we will force the Japanese to pay dearly for every inch of territory they occupy.

In territory which is supposed to be under the occupation of the Japanese, the invading army has suffered greatly and will continue to suffer. Our mobile forces, known as the guerrillas, together with the soldiers of the Eighth Route, or Communists, Armies, have been harassing the enemy and wreaking immense casualties. Until the Japanese withdraw from China, they cannot expect to settle down peacefully while these men are about. Although many are armed with spears only, the guerrillas have been creating such havoc in the ranks of the Japanese that they are feared more than anything else.

SUFFERING BEYOND WORDS

War, as you well realize, is a terrible thing, too terrible for words, but, in the present instance, China is compelled to fight in defence of her territory, her sovereignty and her honour. It is pitiful to see the ravages of war and you can only understand the meaning of my words if you make a personal trip to the war-torn areas. The suffering is beyond words.

In order to cope with these ravages and to alleviate suffering, it is very necessary that there should be relief of all kinds. Medicines of all sorts are badly needed, bandages are wanted and clothes are necessary for both the troops and the war victims. The winter months are fast approaching and we must send to the front everything we possibly can, as quickly as we can, if we are to help our suffering compatriots. I appeal to you to do your very utmost to help.

On this eve of our National Holiday, I again appeal to you to retain your high spirits, your confidence. I appeal to you not to allow your morale to be shaken. Look forward and don't turn back. Renew your efforts and resolve to work harder than ever before on behalf of the country which you love so dearly. You will never regret it.

MUSICAL REVIEW OF THE WEEK

BY ALLEGRO MODERATO

Some little time ago we heard that there was a group of musical enthusiasts who met on certain evenings, had a pleasant time during dinner and then repaired to where there was an excellent radio gramophone and each one of the party contributed to a concert of recorded music from the choicest of his library. In this way, a great variety of music from symphony to opera was thoroughly enjoyed.

After the session it was arranged that another such concert be held. New music was discussed and the proud possessor of any new records would agree to bring them to the next meeting.

For the winter season we think that nothing could be more ideal. The young enthusiasts not only enjoyed themselves but they were in a way, educating themselves to better and better music. They knew enough about the records that were being played to give an explanation of what it was all about, whether it was an operatic aria or a symphony or a ballet. A great deal of amusement could be obtained as well as the breeding of good-fellowship.

In the radio programme last Sunday, Dino Borgioli figured twice. The recording of "Rigoletto," with Borgioli, Mercedes Gaspard, Riccardo Stracciari and Ida Mamanini, was heard, and the famous quartette is one of the best we have heard. The second Borgioli item were two songs, "Morgen" by Richard Strauss, and "Songs My Mother taught me," by Anton Dvorak.

Later, we heard the Dvorak Quartette in A Flat Major Op. 105, played by the Prague String Quartet, followed by "An hour with Handel," performed by the Royal Choral Society and the London Philharmonic Orchestra under Dr. Malcolm Sargent. The recording by Walter Hildop of "Comfort ye my people" and "Every Valley" both from the "Messiah" was very fine indeed.

The Moana Beach Boys played very well on Monday night but we have heard them singing better.

We were disappointed not to have heard the trio, composed of Prue Lewis, Ettore Pellegatti and Lindsay LaFord, play Beethoven's Fifth Trio in D Major, Op. 70 No. 1. It appears that Mr. LaFord was indisposed.

We had a delightful time listening to Ruth Lavin's programme on Wednesday night. She gave an entirely French programme, including Gavotte and Variations (Rameau), Pavane—pour une infante morte (Ravel) and The Cuckoo—Rondo (Daguin), and ended her programme with three pieces by Debussy. Dr. Gradus ad Parnassum, La fille aux cheveux de lin, and Jardins sous la pluie. It was an excellent programme and very well presented. We thought perhaps that the "Pavane" should be substituted by some other piece in a lighter mood.

On Friday night we heard some very good revivals of Victorian favourites by the B.B.C. The venerable gentleman with us simply raved over it. "Ah, it seems like the good old days, again!" he almost sighed.

Then the Reverend C.B.R. Sargent gave us the recorded version of the fourth act of "Otello." We could not recognize the tenor, although it sounded very much like Francesco Merli, one of the few who could do "Otello," which, being a very strong opera in that it needed a "tenor robusto," was ably assisted by a few strong voices the very best.

SENIOR LEAGUE SOCCER

KOWLOON GAIN SURPRISE WIN AT SOOKUNPOO

Middlesex Defeated In Keenly Contested Game

HARTLEY, BLISS OUTSTANDING

(By ROBIN)

AFTER A STRONGLY CONTESTED GAME the Kowloon Football Club defeated the Middlesex by three goals to nil in a First Division Football match played at Sookunpoo on Saturday. The game was packed with excitement and thrills throughout.

Hartley, in goal for Kowloon, was seen at his best, with brilliant saves. Sonny Bliss, a fine leader, was splendid in the pivotal berth. He was responsible for holding the Middlesex forwards at bay with his fine interceptions.

Of the Kowloon forwards, Pat Jorge did valuable work. This young player has a promising future and is a hard worker. Rietsen, on the left wing, proved a constant source of worry to the soldiers' defence, and was responsible for the opening goal, after which the two remaining goals came in quick succession. All goals were scored in the second half.

The Middlesex felt the absence of Watson and Pearson. Kowloon were not at full strength being without Ulrich, who played for the junior side, while J. R. Greaves, who filled the vacancy at right half, kept Saw well marked.

Bright played a fine game for the soldiers. Saw and Grogan tried hard but were too well marked.

The Middlesex kicked off and had a slight advantage over the Kowloon side.

Grogan tested Hartley with a low drive and the latter saved the shot. Shortly after Courtney centered a fine shot from the wing to which Hartley went out to save. The ball was then transferred to the other end of play and from a movement originated from Bliss, the ball was sent across the field to Rietsen who centred a first time shot to Blake. The latter tested Jackson with a nice drive and the goalkeeper conceded a corner.

Mid-field play ensued until half-time.

TACTICS CHANGED

After the interval, Kowloon changed their tactics and attacked with one half back assisting the forwards, while the remaining two stayed to aid in defence. This movement proved successful.

Rietsen opened the score with a fine solo run, and after having evaded Sheehan, placed the ball into the net. Kowloon then did most of the attacking and several fine movements were seen. Working the ball from the right of the field, Knox and Jorge reached the soldiers' goalmouth where Jackson saved.

Blake, the dashing Kowloon leader, of the attack, penetrated the Middlesex defence, scoring a beautiful goal.

At the other end, Saw and Grogan took first time shots whenever the opportunity presented itself, but Hartley had the situation well in hand. The soldiers rallied but their efforts were unsuccessful. Towards the close of play, Pat Jorge added Kowloon's third goal, giving Jackson no chance.

The teams were—
KOWLOON—Hartley; R. J. Everest, A. L. J. Eastman; J. Greaves, A. S. Bliss, Honniball; W. Knox, P. Jorge, D. S. Blake, V. H. White and Rietsen.

MIDDLESEX—Jackson; Sheehan, Smith; Freshwater, Bright, Wilkinson; Bakley, Courtney, Grogan, Saw and Marrable.

KOWLOON JUNIORS DEFEATED

Kowloon Football Club Juniors were narrowly defeated by the Middlesex by the odd goal in five. The soldiers scored two goals from penalties for dangerous play.

The game opened with Kowloon having the advantage and Cruz scored. Middlesex replied through Crowhurst shortly after.

C. Santos put Kowloon in the lead after a fine solo effort. Shortly before half-time a penalty was awarded to the Middlesex, and Devonshire netted to score the equaliser. The score at half-time was 2-2.

Play after the interval was mostly confined to mid-field. In heading a shot from the wing a Kowloon defender was penalised for pushing, and the spot kick was taken by Devonshire who scored.

NAVY TROUNCE POLICE

Newlands Scores Three Out Of Six Goals

Playing against a superior team the Police were trounced by six goals to two by the Navy in a First Division encounter on the Navy ground on Saturday.

Newlands, the Navy inside forward, distinguished himself by scoring three of the six goals, while Muggilston scored two and Thorburn one.

Play opened with the Navy kicking off and after a short period of end to end play they settled down, Newlands scoring at close range giving MacHardy no chance.

Newlands came into the limelight again with another goal soon after and Muggilston added a third before Howlett replied for the police. Shortly before the interval, Newlands got his third goal.

On resumption the Police tried to reduce the arrears with a number of rallies but were repulsed by the Navy backs. However, Wall managed to get through to score for the Police. Bringing the ball to territory, the Navy scored through Thorburn and shortly after Muggilston added the sixth goal.

In stopping a drive from Betts, the Police custodian, MacHardy, caught the ball in his stomach and was carried off the field, shortly before time.

The teams were—
POLICE—MacHardy; Blackburn, Pope, North, Brittain, Parker, Moss, Wall, Howlett, Morrison and Taylor.

NAVY—Dickerson; Beils, Dargan; Honeywell, Webster, Ridley; Phipps; Muggilston, Newlands, Thorburn and Betts.

Eastern Beat The Club

FINE GAME AT HAPPY VALLEY

Played throughout at a great pace, and featured by many thrilling moments, the first division game between Club and Eastern at Happy Valley on Saturday provided perhaps the best brand of football served up in the league this season.

Eastern were good value for their win by four goals to two, for though the opposition forwards were no less hard-working, they lacked the polish and understanding of Lee Tak-kee, Suen Kam-shun, Hau Ching-to and company.

Suen, in particular, played a great game, the value and brilliance of which cannot be solely measured by the two goals he netted. Hau Ching-to was individualistic but by the very nature of this type of play was not always as effective as he might have been.

CLUB SCORE FIRST

Club opened the score Fowler sending the ball to Drossel close in for him to place into the net. A little later Eastern equalised through Lee Tak-kee.

After the interval the Chinese team began taking up the running in earnest and soon went into the lead with a magnificent goal from Suen's foot. Hau Ching-to put them further ahead with a fine

BRILLIANT ALL-ROUND DISPLAY BY MOORES

Navy Have Makings Of Fine Side This Season

BY "NEW L.B.W."

Saturday's cricket was featured by the appearance for the Navy, against Kowloon Cricket Club, of Lt. Manners and Marine Moores, two players who have figured in County games. Manners, going in second wicket down, was bowled by a very fine ball from Robbie Lee before he had settled down, but Moores distinguished himself with an all-round display that augurs well for Navy cricket this year.

Kowloon were beaten by six wickets, the bowling of Moores (5 for 18) and Paxton (3 for 16) dismissing their strong batting side for only 41 runs. Though most of the ships are in harbour, the Navy fielded a comparatively new side and indications are that they will not lack for talent this year and will go far in the League (always providing that naval movements will not coincide with their big matches).

Club de Recreio all but beat Craighower, last year's joint champions, on their own ground. They totalled 140, which was contributed to mostly by the first four men. Eddie Gosano knocked out a hard-hit 30, Rodrigues and Soares and a stylish 29 and 25 each; and Willie Reed had 15. George Souza bowled very steadily for his 5 for 32 in 14 overs.

Craighower failed badly with the bat. Of the top men only Souza got double figures, and; but for a plucky 21 not out by A. K. Ismail at No. 8, they would probably have lost, being eight wickets down for only 41 at the end.

In the second division Kowloon Juniors revenged their senior's defeat when they walked all over the Navy. The latter batted first and were skittled out for 44 which would have been much less without Brownrigg's 28 not out. Young Kenneth Baxter achieved amazing success with the ball, getting six wickets for nine runs. When Kowloon went in Baxter figured in a first-wicket century partnership with R. T. Broadbridge, who batted very well indeed. They had 40 and 82 respectively.

The Indians held a 12-a-side trial, in which A. R. Minu, their skipper, distinguished himself with a fine all-round performance, hitting 59 out of 87 and taking six wickets for 24 runs.

OFFICE BOY IN TROUBLE

Ng Pun, 38, office boy employed by Mr. Rudolf Schwob, manager of Siemens China Company, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment, with the alternative of a fine of $120 by Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday.

Ng was charged with stealing two one-dollar postal stamps and having tended for posting a postal package which was purported to have been prepaid with postage stamps which appeared to have been used.

On Friday defendant tendered a letter to a clerk in the Post Office. The letter was examined and the clerk suspected that the stamps had already been used. Ng was arrested and when searched two unused stamps were found on his person.

WITHOUT HOMES

Since last Friday twenty Chinese refugees with their families have made their "homes" on the pavement in front of the Secretariat for Chinese Affairs Building in Connaught Road Central.

They arrived here from Canton by train with no means of securing shelter, being without funds, and have since parked under the verandah of the S.C.A.

On Saturday night, they were still in possession of their "occupied" area, with their scanty belongings piled up against the wall.

It is understood that the matter has been referred to the Tung Wah Hospital.

The Head of the Canton Administration Bureau has announced that the cultivation of Lul-chow peninsula will be enforced only when inspection work, which is being carried out by geological experts, is completed.

SAINTS STAGE LATE RALLY

Lose To S. China "A"
By Odd Goal

U. SOUZA'S FINE DISPLAY

(BY ROBIN)

Staking a rally in the latter stages of the second half, St. Joseph's were able to reduce their arrears and lost to South China "A" by 4-3 in a First Division League football encounter at Causeway Bay, yesterday.

The game on the whole was rather even, the Chinese combination and short passing proving a constant source of worry to the Saints' defence, so much so that the half backs were obliged to help the full backs.

U. Souza, in goal for the Saints, gave a fine display, while Leonard and Hussain did valuable work.

For the Chinese, Fung King-cheong and Lau Tau-man were outstanding, the latter scoring two of the four goals.

The Saints' rally came rather too late to be of any use. At this late stage they scored their three goals in rapid succession and left the Chinese defence standing.

LOW DRIVE

The Chinese kicked off and after end to end play, Fung tested Souza with a low drive which the latter deflected for a corner. Lau Tau-man evaded the Saints' defence to score the opening goal after fifteen minutes of play, and Kwok Ying-kee added the second goal soon after.

At the other end, Leonard sent in a hard shot which Pau, just managed to gather.

Receiving a pass from Kwok, Fung made no mistake with his shot. Tang missed a sitter, after having run-half the length of the field with only Souza to beat. The score at half time was 3-0 in favour of the Chinese.

After the interval the Saints took the ball into the Chinese territory but they lacked finish. Hussain, centre-half, kept well up, but the other half backs stayed too far back to be effective.

Lau placed the Chinese further ahead as the result of a solo effort. The Chinese then got the upper hand and kept the ball in their opponents' area but no further score was registered.

Towards the end Santos scored a perfect goal, and with lightning speed added a second. Leonard scored their third goal from a pass. The Saints pressed hard for the equaliser when the final whistle was sounded.

The teams were:—

SOUTH CHINA "A":—Pau Kap-ling; Mak Shui-hon, Lee Ting-san; Leung Wing-chiu, Lau Hing-choi, Lee Kwok-wai, Tang Kwong-sum, Lai Shui-wing, Fung King-cheong, Kwok Ying-ki and Lau Tau-man.

ST. JOSEPH'S:—U. Souza; L. Souza, Marques; Pereira, Hussain, Castilho, Ward, Azlin, Leonard, Santos and Alves.

TEN GOALS SHARED

Royal Scots and Kwong Wah In Draw

(BY ROBIN)

After being three goals in arrears in the first half, the Royal Scots staged a fine comeback to share ten goals with Kwong Wah in their First Division match at Soekunpoo yesterday.

Kwong Wah played the short-passing game which proved successful against the soldiers and the pace set by them in the opening period enabled them to score four goals, the Scots replying with one.

Proctor was outstanding for the Scots, and was solely responsible for bringing the Scots on equal terms with the electricians.

On the other hand, Cheuk Fook-cheun, left wing for Kwong Wah, played extremely well. He scored the first two goals in fine manner.

In the opening stages the soldiers did not make the best of their advantage owing to the lack of finish. A period of mid-field play ensued, after which Kwong Wah settled down.

BRILLIANT GOAL

Cheuk Fook-cheun, after having received a pass from Chin, scored a brilliant opening goal. He came back after five minutes to score again for Kwong Wah. The soldiers gained their first goal in a melee, Proctor scoring. Lan Wing-kui and Wang King-cheung added to Kwong Wah's tally before the interval.

On resumption, the Scots turned the tables, and Kwong Wah appeared to be tiring somewhat from the fast pace they set in the opening half. Hossack netted the

INTERNATIONAL SOCCER MATCH

Scots Beat Irish
At Belfast

Belfast, Oct. 8.

Before a crowd of 30,000 people, under an overcast sky and on a heavy ground, Scotland beat Ireland by two goals to nil in their international soccer match at Windsor Park to-day. The big crowd included a large contingent of Scotsmen who had made the trip to cheer their side on to victory.

Before the game the players were introduced to the Irish linen Queen, who handed each a box of linen handkerchiefs.

Scotland won the toss and were the more dangerous team from the start but O'Mahoney was very strong in the Irish defence.

Both sides early on missed scoring by inches, corners being given against both. Both goalkeepers were in magnificent form.

In the 33rd minute Delaney scored from a pass from Walker to draw first blood for Scotland.

Rain began falling heavily. After a spell of attacking, the Irish forwards found the Scots defence too much and were driven back. Brown gave away a corner from which Walker shot into the back of the net when the Irish defence attempted to clear the ball.

Further spasmodic Irish attacks were easily countered, although the forwards pegged away pluckily. Martin and Brown combining to disorganise the Scottish defence which, however, held out.—Reuter.

Scots second goal, and Allan added another in quick succession.

The Chinese managed to score through Chin Chi-fan after a fine movement started by Young. Fleming scored the Scots' fourth goal and shortly before the end, Hossack netted the equaliser.

The teams were:
ROYAL SCOTS:—Duncan; Fraser, McDonald; Bran, Proctor, Clark; Munro, Fleming, Hossack, Allan and McKay.

KWONG WAH:—Lee Kwok-kee; Hou Ying-sang, Chung Fal-lan; Cheong Wing, Yueng Tse-tsang, Henry Young; Lan Fook-cheung, Chin Chi-fan, Cheuk Shek-kam and Wong King-cheung.

KWONG WAH SWAMPED
At Causeway Bay yesterday, the Royal Scots swamped Kwong Wah, seven goals to two, after the score was 2-2 at half-time.

McDonald scored first for the Scots, then Williamson, Lung Chit-lap and Leung Bing Kan equalised for Kwong Wah.

The Scots forward line, proved unplayable in the second half when every one in the line scored a goal.

The teams:
ROYAL SCOTS: Salters; Fowler and Marshall; Fraser, Pluckrose, and Symons; Gilroy, Williamson, McDonald, Callaghan, and Milroy.

KWONG WAH: Lee Kwok-kee; Tillery and Lo Shu-kai; Chung Wah-shue, Leung Bing-kan, Chau Wing-hung, L. A. Rocha, Wan Shui-yang.

WIN FOR CHINESE

At Soekunpoo yesterday, St. Joseph's lost to South China by three goals to two.

Tavares and Campos netted for the Saints and Chen Chi-fai and Chau Chung-yah (2) for South China.

The teams:
SOUTH CHINA: Ho Po-plu Li Wing-on and Yau Wah-hing; Ng Kiu-man, Yuen Hin, and Tam Chun-fai; Chi-fai, Tin Yung-fat, Chau Chung-yah, Chan Wai-sank, and Lok Tok-hing.

WORLD SERIES BASEBALL

Yankees Win For Third Time

New York, Oct. 9.

In the Yankee Stadium the Yankees beat the Cubs 5-2 in the third game of the World Series.

Over 55,000 were thrilled to see the Yankees demolish three Chicago pitchers with a batting spree which they unleashed after tying 0-0 through four innings.

Pearson pitched unchanged for the Yankees. Bryant opened for the Cubs followed later by Russell and French in a desperate Chicago effort to turn the tide.

BRYANT BATTERED
The Yankees scored seven hits and two errors against the Cubs' five and one respectively. The Cubs batted first and led 1-0 at the fifth.

Hack hitting a home run but the Yankees retaliated to lead 2-1 at the end of this canto, Gordon homering and Pearson later crossing the plate.

Again in the sixth, the world champions battered Bryant with Di Maggio and Gehrig scoring whereat Russell replaced Bryant while pandemonium broke loose.

FINE PITCHING
In the eighth Chicago inning Marty homered with a terrific smack into the left stands but in Yankees' eight Dick failed for French to score another home run.

Throughout Pearson was most deadly and pitched magnificent ball. He struck nine which is four short of the record for the world series with three straight wins for the Yankees they clinch the World Series. The weather was magnificent.—Reuter
